

EMPEROR
(B38) RED*The Early, Flashy Red Tulip!

The earliest of all Tulips to bloom, and the largest flowering of the Botanical varieties. Their enormous blooms, of the most brilliant cardinal red with yellow base, open with the Daffodils, are carried on strong stems, and last unusually long for Tulips. There is nothing more thrilling in early spring than a bed or border of Red Emperor Tulips, or combined with Daffodils will give superb effect. Bulbs are somewhat smaller than other types (10-11 cm.) but they still produce huge flowers the first year.

 Our 91st Year

Dear Friends:

We wish to thank you for your fine orders and letters of this past season. Throughout the years, your confidence in us and your generous recommendations of our plants to your relatives and friends have been our greatest pride and asset.

Fall is an excellent planting time for many items such as we offer in this Fall book. Last spring, in the miserable cold, rainy weather, with mud inches deep, customer after customer complained to us—"Why didn't I order last fall and plant when the weather was nice! My trees and shrubs would be budding out by this time." It is to your advantage to plant this fall and gain the head start.

Our wonderful growing season makes it possible to furnish you the finest trees and plants we have ever had, at a savings you get in purchasing direct from our large growing fields. It pays in quality and price to buy your stock direct from a grower. We welcome your orders either direct from this catalog or, if convenient, at our large, modern Sales Yard at Hampton. On behalf of all of us, may I extend our best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

EARL FERRIS NURSERY

HOW TO PLANT TULIPS

For long-time blooms, richest colors and tallest stems, plant tulips in a lightly shaded area; in the South, the east or north exposure is best. Tulips must be planted in the fall, the ideal period being when the tree leaves begin to fall up until the time the ground freezes. Plant 5 to 7 inches apart and 8 or 9 inches deep in good, well-drained garden soil. A thin layer of sand upon which to lay the bulbs is recommended. Place bulbs in the bottom of the trench, surrounding each one with good garden soil pressed firmly so no air pocket will be left. If the weather is dry after planting, soak the bed thoroughly several times to promote root growth. Just before the ground freezes, scatter a thin sprinkling of fertilizer over the top of the bed. After the ground freezes down two or three inches, cover the bed with several inches of shredded cornstalks, straw or some coarse mulching of that kind. Again the following spring when the Tulips are growing, if the weather is dry you will have better flowering results if you soak the bed well two or three times.

HOW WE SELL SPECIMEN EVERGREENS HOW YOU SHOULD PLANT THEM

Individually Wrapped means specimen Evergreens are packed singly in sphagnum moss. We have been handling them in this way to reduce shipping costs for our customers, and to speed delivery. When planting Individually Wrapped trees, remove all of the packing material, soak roots thoroughly in water, then plant deeply and firmly in good well-prepared garden soil, using plenty of water. Until you have good rains, it is advisable to water heavily around the Evergreens 2 or 3 nights each week.

B&B means Balled and Burlapped. The tree is dug with a solid ball of rich, heavy loam in which it has been growing for years, completely covering and protecting the root system. In planting B&B Evergreens, dig hole 6 inches wider and deeper than the ball, and plant complete ball and burlap after you cut the strings and roll back burlap at top. Take care not to break the ball, and water heavily.

Be sure that the soil around your Evergreen freezes up wet this fall.

BALLED & BURLAPPED EVERGREENS

Below are approximate weights of B&B Evergreens, which will vary according to the variety and moisture content of the soil:

18-24 in.	40 to 50 lbs.
2-3 ft.	50 to 80 lbs.
3-4 ft.	80 to 100 lbs.

We advise shipping by Truck Freight if this service is accessible. In ordering be sure to give name of Trucking Company servicing your community. Express service is sometimes faster, and sometimes cheaper for one or two trees, but we advise your checking with the express agent on the 2nd class rate. Should you be located outside the Midwest States area, we recommend that you buy the Individually Wrapped Trees, which weigh considerably less. However, B&B is always the safest way to handle large specimen Evergreens.

HOUSE PLANTS

Shipped Fresh from Our Greenhouses to You

We send them to you out of 2 in. pots as soon as weather permits, and separately from nursery stock. We do not ship them when there is danger of their freezing in transit. As soon as you receive your plants, we recommend repotting them immediately into 3 in. or 4 in. pots. You will find they are easily developed into strong, mature specimens, even more beautiful than shown in these pictures. Cultural directions included.

"Rose Bud" Begonias

PLANTING DIRECTIONS

Plant your trees as soon as they arrive, in good garden soil; it must be prepared in the same manner as for your garden. Set deeply and firmly in the ground after thoroughly soaking the roots in water, and water well around the trees until the ground freezes in the winter.

Seedling evergreens should be planted in a garden plot or beds for the first two years before transplanting permanently. A partial shade through the first summer is always beneficial. Small seedlings and transplanted evergreens should be protected by a stake or wire netting to prevent their being trampled on.

See planting directions for Individually Wrapped and B&B evergreens on page 5. We give information on weights of B&B evergreens on page 5.

Your success depends on how well you water around your Evergreens THROUGHOUT the fall.

PLANT THIS FALL!

These popular, hardy varieties are readily established in the fall, and will be all ready to start a quick growth next spring. We start shipping them after the first frost, when their new growth hardens up. Set the plants deeply and firmly in good soil, giving the tops a judicious pruning, and see that they have plenty of moisture throughout the fall season.

SF28—SNOWBALL, COMMON. This good old-time plant, pictured above, is a heritage from our grandmothers' gardens, with a profusion of large, ball-shaped blooms in the spring. Thrives well in shade as well as sun. Excellent in landscape borders and backgrounds, and a favorite for cemetery planting. 6-8 ft. at maturity.

(a) 18-24 in., transplants	$0.85	$1.50	$3.50
(b) 3-4 ft., heavy	1.50	2.75	6.25

SF29—UPRIGHT EUONYMUS, SARCOXIE STRAIN. (Radicans erecta). The rich beauty of the glossy, evergreen foliage hardly shows in so small a picture—see above. The Sarcoxie Strain is considered the finest and most useful of the newly introduced broad-leaf evergreens, developing an upright, shapely shrub. Superb as a specimen or for low, thick hedges. Beautiful, dark green, waxy leaves and stems the year round except in coldest sections where it should have some protection. Plant in good rich soil, sun or light shade. 3-4 ft. at maturity.

15-18 in., transplants	$1.85	$3.40

SF30—GIANT ATLAS MOCK ORANGE. Splendid new variety from France, with close to 3-inch blooms of pure white thickly covering the strong, upright branches in June—see picture above. It is the largest flowering Mock Orange to date, a very hardy plant that will grow almost anywhere, and the magnificent blooms are wonderful for cutting. 8-12 ft. at maturity. We recommend it highly for specimen planting, for the informal border, or tall background.

Excellent for foundation and border planting, seldom growing over 3 or 4 feet tall. Very Hardy. A specimen plant is pictured above.
